Tan Academy of Balance Inc.

APPLICATION:

Certified Balance System Acupuncture Practitioner (BSAP) Mentorship – Cohort 7

Early Acceptance deadline: June 21, 2026* Regular Acceptance deadline: July 31, 2026

Information:

This program is an 8-month commitment and involves competency assessments such as assignments, case presentations and testing, in addition to providing valuable feedback. Like in the ancient ways of passing on information, Dr. Sonia F. Tan (Tan Shifu) and her teaching team will be taking in students as they see aligned for the mentorship. NOTE: The Lead BSA Instructor for Cohort 7 will be Tan Shifu's trusted Head Teaching Assistant and Certified BSA Teacher, Suzanne Williams, MBA, RAc, RTCMP. If you are accepted as a student, a deposit holds your seat. Classes are approximately once a month with a total of 9 levels including lectures, labs, case studies, practical evaluations, tests, assignments, and a final comprehensive exam. Online live-streaming is available (no recordings) and attending in-person in Vancouver, BC is required for BSA Level 8.

Please answer the following questions, keeping to less than 3 pages in total.

1) What is your name and how did you hear about Dr. Sonia F Tan & the Tan Academy of Balance?

2) a) What do you know about Balance System Acupuncture? b) Why do you want to learn Balance System Acupuncture?

3) What unique quality will you bring to the mentorship?

4) How do you think this information might change your practice?

5) Which do you prefer: Oceans or Mountains?

Required additional submissions with your application are below. Return to hello@tanbalance.com by the deadlines above.

- ☐ Application payment (see instructions below on page 2 to submit payment).
- ☐ Proof of completion of the Prerequisites: BSA Foundations Levels 1+2. Webinars are acceptable. If you have completed the BSA Foundations Practical Evaluation as well, please submit this also.
- ☐ Proof of successful passing grade of the BSA Foundations Equivalency Tests. These tests assess comprehension, competency and application, in addition to providing valuable feedback. See our Equivalency Test FAQs on our website here. If one has not written these yet, acceptance in the program will be pending passing of these BSA Foundations Equivalency Tests. NOTE: Completion of the quizzes at the end of a webinar are NOT the same (they only check for content completion). All webinar students must write the BSA Foundations Equivalency Tests.
- ☐ Current professional titles, license number(s), email address, and phone number.

Please return to hello@tanbalance.com by the deadlines above. Video interviews may be scheduled.

Early Applications notice by July 15, 2026.* Regular Applications notice by August 15, 2026.*

Please follow these steps to pay for non-refundable Application payment due with submission of your application to the program.

1. Click HERE to register for or sign-in to your Student Access account on our www.tanbalance.com site.
2. You can then access the Student Access page and see all available Courses in the TAB Store. You must be logged in to see the available payment or course selections in the TAB Store.
3. Select and pay for "Application Payment". Payment is due with your application.